Mrs. Fred Tucker and Miss Mattie Clark Gano were hostesses Saturday afternoon at the home of the former, to a bridge party for Miss Sadie Hard, who leaves soon for her home in Texas. Easter lilies adorned the home in a very beautiful arrangement. At the close of the game the following prizes were awarded: The guest prize, presented Miss Hard, was a lovely sterling silver handkerchief case. Miss Beatrice von Keller received the club prize, a pair of silk hose, and Miss Gertrude Alexander the consolation, a crepe de chine handkerchief. A lovely salad and ice course was served the following guests: Misses Waltrip, H. P. Nichols, and Misses Sadie Hard, Beatrice von Keller, Mary Anderson, Jeanette Moore, Gertrude Alexander, Scotta Goodwin, of Dallas, Mary and Marjorie Williams, Marguerite Noble, Floy Alvis, Hal Fraley, Helen Walcott, Eugenie and Genevieve Nivoche.

A pretty and delightful Easter party was given for Little Miss Leslie

Crawford Saturday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, on Melish avenue. The tiny folks had a merry time as they searched among the grass and violet beds for their Easter baskets. After enjoying many jolly games upon the lawn, an army of little soldiers, wearing bright-colored caps, invaded the dining room. Here a May-pole, the ribbons of which were caught by wee rabbits, adorned one end of the table and a beautiful pond of lilies and pussy willows the other. Peter Rabbit bobbed a joyous welcome to each guest as the little people gathered around the table, where a delicious two-course luncheon was served. Mrs. Bishop was assisted by Mrs. Crawford and Misses Lillian and Margaret Bishop.

On Saturday afternoon the home of Mrs. B. A. Simpson was a veritable human flower garden, when she tendered her little grandson, Barton Gregg, an Easter party. The tiny tots were entertained with an Easter egg hunt, and afterward they were treated to ice cream and cake, which children always consider the sum total of a party. The following children were present: Sutherland, Sykes, Clark Tucker, Mary Lila Madden, Wilbur Jones, Frederick Alexander, Laura Cannon, Melville Cannon, Jno. W. Nichols, Lily and Dan Lillard, Ruth Tom Frame.

Mrs. W. R. Johnson gave a lovely Easter party Saturday for her little granddaughters, Louise Helen Johnson. There were sixteen happy participants to enjoy the festivities. After the games and the egg hunt, the happy throng were served with an ice course, and presented with lovely Easter baskets filled with eggs, as a favor.

The egg hunt given on the rectory lawn of the Episcopal church Saturday was attended by nearly all the children of the parish. The fine weather and plenty of Easter eggs combined to make the afternoon an enjoyable one for all present.

Mrs. H. E. Foster entertained with a dinner at Chickasaw lake yesterday honoring the anniversary of her father, Mr. George Henry Bruce. A number of friends enjoyed the hospitality of the occasion.

The friends of Mrs. Joseph Weiss will regret to learn that she had the misfortune to fall and break her limb a few days ago. Mrs. Weiss is doing nicely, and will be able to be out again soon.

The members of the Mizpah Class of the First Christian church are requested to meet in a business session this evening at 7:45 at the home of Everett Poole, 523 A street, north-west.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild will meet Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock instead of two o'clock, and all members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Esther Danner and sister, Miss Bess Cohen, left today for Fort Worth and Dallas to visit friends and relatives.

Miss Helen Sayre will entertain this evening with a dinner for Miss Scotta Goodwin of Dallas.

Mrs. B. A. Simpson and Mrs. John Nichols will leave tomorrow for a short visit in Dallas.

Recital for Graduation.

One of the most pleasing piano recitals of the season was given in the Judson College auditorium on Monday evening by Miss Louise Love, of Ardmore, Oklahoma, assisted by Miss Louise Lambert, soprano, of Orrville, Alabama.

Miss Love, who is a member of the Senior class, opened the program with the Adagio movement of the Beethoven Sonata, Opus 13, followed by the Ronda. These movements and the Chopin Variations on a German theme, of the second group, were given studious interpretation with due attention to tonal and rhythmic contrast. The Etude appassionata by Edward Wolff was an example of melody sonorous and beauty of tone. In the MacDowell group, "To the Sea," "From a Wandering Iceberg," and "Hungarian," Miss Love gave evidence of unusual virtuosity for so young an artist, showing keen musical feeling appreciation of the composer's impressions and well developed technique. Of unusual interest were a "Love Song" and "Musical Movement" by Edward Leeson Powers, Director of the School of Music. The melodious inventiveness of these pieces is of unusual beauty, their originality and skillful construction is indicative of their creator's musicianship. They were played in interesting manner by Miss Love, who has been for several years a pupil of Mr. Powers and were enthusiastically received by the appreciated audience. The program included a sketch by Mozowski, the Tambourine by Raff, a Waltz by Rachmaninoff and "In the Hall of the Mountain King," from the Peer Gynt suite by Grieg, all of which were given with technical fluency and excellent tone. The last named was the closing number of the program.—Marion (Ala.) Times.

PAINS IN SIDE AND BACK

How Mrs. Kelly Suffered and How She was Cured.

Burlington, Wis.—"I was very irregular, and had pains in my side and back, but after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and using two bottles of the Sanative Wash I am fully convinced that I am entirely cured of these troubles, and feel better all over. I know your remedies have done me worlds of good and I hope every suffering woman will give them a trial."—Mrs. ANNA KELLY, 710 Chestnut Street, Burlington, Wis.

The many convincing testimonials constantly published in the newspapers ought to be proof enough to women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they need.

This good old root and herb remedy has proved unequalled for these dreadful ills; it contains what is needed to restore woman's health and strength.

If there is any peculiarity in your case requiring special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for free advice.

SICKNESS VERY COMMON IN UNITED STATES ARMY

Washington, April 23.—Officers and soldiers of the United States army were sick oftener and longer in 1914 than any other body of men which came under observation of the public health service, according to a report on disability statistics published today.

During the year the report says 629 enlisted men out of every 1,000 in the army were admitted to the sick list. Disability due to disease was at the rate of 498 per 1,000, and due to injury 131. The average disability lasted thirteen and one-half days and the average number of disability per year for all the enlisted personnel was eight and one-half.

Government employees in Washington, according to statistics covering 16,000 persons, lost 5.84 days each on an average for disability, or nearly three days each less a year than for enlisted men. The report said the service was at a loss to understand this, inasmuch as a large percentage of government employees are in middle or elderly life, while the big majority of enlisted men are either in their twenties and are accepted only after rigid physical examinations.

Men employed in the government civil service, the report shows, lost only 4.92 days apiece from work, while women lost 8.90 days each from disability. Thirteen men and twenty-four women out of every thousand were off duty for disability every day.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From a small beginning the sale and use of this remedy has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. When you have need of such a medicine, give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and you will understand why it has become so popular for coughs, colds, and croup. Obtainable everywhere.

WYOMING TRAIN ROBBER CAPTURED AND WOUNDED

Rawlins, Wyo. April 23.—The robber who last night held up and robbed nearly three-score passengers on Union Pacific Limited No. 21, west of Hanna, Wyoming, was captured late Saturday, twenty miles north of Walcott, by one of the posses of half a hundred men that took up the chase immediately after the robbery.

The bandit is suspected of having committed four train robberies in this section within the past few weeks.

The message stated the man was alive when the message was sent, which is taken here to indicate that he had been wounded in a clash with his pursuers.

On the raid he got about $2,000 in the observation car and $200 in one sleeper. Boarding the train at Greeley, Colorado, the robber, after an hour's wait forced the train guard to pass the hat for him. When they had finished their rounds, the bandit handed the guard a watch.

"There's a watch I got on my last holdup and which I promised to return this time," he said. The bandit who robbed the Union Pacific Overland Limited at Corlette Junction, April 5, promised the porter who collected for him on that occasion that he would return a watch he had taken, upon his next exploit.
